New Publication for Coding Guidance

Highmark is pleased to announce a new coding publication available to our provider community! Highmark Coding Tips is a periodic article that contains billing and coding best practices for professional and facility providers. This publication focuses only on correct coding guidelines and tips to avoid common billing mistakes. The first published article is now available and can be reviewed by visiting the Highmark Coding Tips hyperlink in the menu under Claims, Payment & Reimbursement. Stay tuned for future articles to be published throughout the year!
