UPDATES TO REIMBURSEMENT POLICY 064: GOVERNMENT SUPPLIED VACCINATIONS AND ANTIBODY TREATMENTS

On January 1, 2022, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) changed the instruction for how providers are to bill for the services listed below:

- Covid vaccines
- Covid vaccine administrations
- Covid antibody treatments
- Covid antibody treatment administrations

Prior to January 1, 2022, only Highmark's commercial lines were reimbursing for the administration of Covid vaccines and the administration of Covid antibody treatments. For dates of services after January 1, 2022, providers are instructed to submit claims for all of the above services to Highmark, for both Commercial and Medicare Advantage members.

Reimbursement Policy 064: Government Supplied Vaccinations and Antibody Treatments will be updated with this information and published on March 28, 2022, for your review.
