Free Quality Improvement Sessions to be Offered in 2015

We work hard to share information about best practices that you can incorporate in your office to support your quality improvement efforts.

In 2015, you will have several opportunities to participate in free one-hour conference calls focused on different quality improvement topics each month. And, some of these sessions will even offer CME credits!

You can register for these calls by selecting the date you'd like to attend in the table below. Once you register, you'll receive an email with instructions on how to dial into the call.

Date	Topic
Jan. 28	Cervical Cancer Screening
Feb. 25	Medication Reconciliation
