TODAY'S MESSAGE

"WHAT'S UP WEDNESDAY" ICD-10 TELECONFERENCE SCHEDULED FOR MAY 20, 2015

RESERVE THE DATE AND TAKE ADVANTAGE OF A TELECONFERENCE SERIES FROM PENNSYLVANIA'S BLUE PLANS

"What's up Wednesday" is a monthly teleconference for Pennsylvania's health care providers about the transition to ICD-10. "What's up Wednesday" will feature special guests and ICD-10 experts who will lead discussions to help you get ready for the Oct. 1, 2015 compliance date.

WHEN IS THE NEXT CALL?

May 20, 2015: From 2 to 3 p.m.
The calls take place on the third Wednesday of each month.

HOW DO I PARTICIPATE?

Prior to the call, visit the ICD-10 Library on the Provider Resource Center to access the teleconference materials. You can reach the Library by selecting ICD-10/HIPAA and then the ICD-10 Library.

Then dial 1-800-882-3610 and enter pass code 5411307 when prompted. Be sure to dial in a few minutes early.

Questions can be emailed prior to or during the teleconference to ICD10ProviderCommunication@capbluecross.com.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

All providers, clearinghouses, trade associations and information networks are encouraged to participate.

ICD-10 LIBRARY

The materials presented during each monthly teleconference will be retained in the ICD-10 Library for your ongoing reference. Look for the link within the "What's Up Wednesday" section of the Library.
